

Ward 6

1000 Block of 9th St. NE Area Fix-It

Ward 6

Before: This vacant house was home to bulk trash, solid waste and a few homeless people.

After: DCRA posted the house as dangerous, cleaned out the trash and boarded the exits.

Before: We found the front door wide open!

After: Now, the house is nice and secure.

Ward 6

Before: The interior was a big mess!

After: DCRA's enforcement team will bill the owner for the clean up.

Before: More trash.

After: Thanks DCRA!

Ward 6

Before: This a perfect place for rats to live!

After: Much better!

Before: Again, more than dirty!

After: All gone!

Ward 6

BEFORE: Bulk trash in the backyard?

After: Clean as a whistle!

Before: More trash.

After: Not in Ward 6!

Ward 6

Before: Those cans have not been dumped in a long time.

After: Thanks, DPW.

Before: The backyard two doors down needed a makeover as well!

After: Much better! The owner got the message.

Ward 6

Before: This looks like it has been here for a long time.

After: No longer!

Before: You can't hide trash under snow!

After: DPW will always find the trash.

Ward 6

Before: Illegal dumping.

After: All gone!

Before: No plates and no registration?

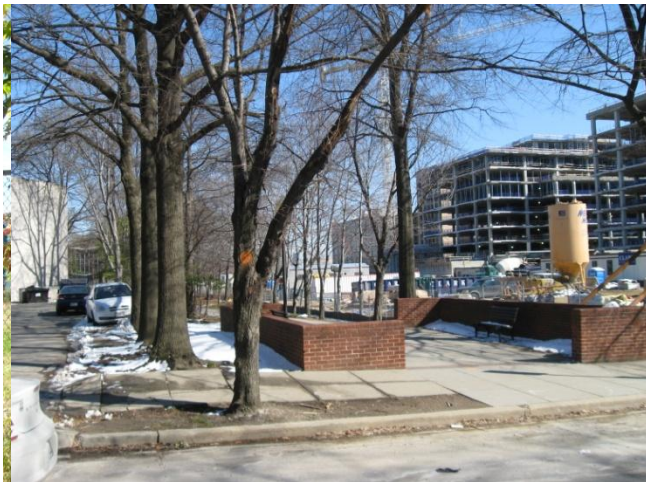

After: Wave bye, bye!

Other Ward 6 Accomplishments

Before: This tree has caused several cars to nearly miss students?

Before: This tree impairs vision as well!

After: DDOT/Urban Forestry to the rescue!

After: Not any longer!

Other Ward 6 Accomplishments

Before: Not the healthiest tree in the District.

After: Much Better.

Before: Removing this tree will make it safer for the students.

After: Gone!

Other Ward 6 Accomplishments

Before: The Amidon Principle asked us to trim the trees near the school.

After: Much better.

Before: In the spring, this tree would be a problem!

After : What a nice trim job!

Other Ward 6 Accomplishments

Before: One more hair cut for one more tree!

After: Look, a tree barber!

Before: Last, we have to clean up all the tree limbs!

After: Urban Forestry is awesome!
